When apomixis occurs, i.e. the replacement of sexual reproduction by asexual reproduction, LECL expression in the nucleilus intequiment, or cell specific expression in the mecaspore mother cell would triquer embryo formation from maternal tissues city. This results in the production of seeds identical to the parent. Using LECL, transquire high yielding seeds could be developed. In addition, LECL could be used to positive selection of a transformed cell (transactic plant), for positive selection of a transformed cell (transactic plant).

The present sequence is the coding sequence of soybean leafy obtyledom I transcriptional activator, LECL this sequence encodes a HARS type (MARI box binding protein LECL expression unithates the formation of ombryo-like screen rures and improves growth and recovery of transformers. When apparent to construction, LECL expression in the machelins internally or coll specific expression in the medaspore mather cell would relaced embryo formation from maternal dissues only. This results in the production of seeds identical technologies, and it is needed to a decide to a seeds to of a transformed cell (transformer plant), to be developed, the addition, LECL transformer increasing transformation efficiency and to increasing transformation.

This results in the production of seeds identical to the parent. Using LETE transfermic bash yielding seeds would be developed. In addition, LETE would be used for positive selection of a transformed cell (transperie plant), for increasing transformation efficiency and for increasing recovery of regenerated plants.

The present sequence is the coding sequence for one such transcription tactor. He transcription factor may be used to produce a plant baying mobilited gene expression such as a woody plant e.g. a escalyptus, time, asserta, paper, sweethams tests or madeciany species or to modify the present invention are momented to a plant.
